Summary:

Eleven used to do that. But doesn't everyone do that? C'mon Mike, be more specific!

Walking

Will Byers loved his friends. He loved Lucas and his cynical-ness, his eyerolls, his occasional grin. He loved Dustin's jokes, his optimism, his sass. And he loved Mike Wheeler.

Yep. That was it. He loved him.

Now it wasn't like he was going to say out loud that he had a crush on him. Because his friends loved him too--but not like that. And his family loved him, of course they did--but he wasn't sure how they'd exactly react.

Besides, it was obvious that Mike liked someone else.

Will was trying to act upbeat about all of this though. Right now he was walking to Mike's house just to hang out with him. He knocked on the door, and when he found it was already open, he walked in.

"Hey Mike!" he said brightly.

"Eleven used to do that..." Mike said sadly. Will sighed. Eleven was the girl he'd been in love with. Or I mean, at least had a crush on.

"Uh, what?"

"Walk through my door..."

And then Will walked right back out. He wasn't in the mood to deal with all of this shit today.
